Enjoying the Completion of the Two Major Aspects

Last month we talked about the Saturn/Pluto aspect which was a time to uncover and renew our tangible and material desires by focusing on, scheduling and developing projects. Planning to be successful or happy would have brought repeats of the same feelings. That's why we said this aspect was the Restructuring aspect. It added form to our deepest feelings and yearnings and gave renewed passion to our projects already underway. If we had space for new projects in our lives, it could have been a Restructuring time to begin for now and for our whole life.

An assignment from that was to recall all of our favorite experiences and extract from them the best feelings and emotions. It was an auspicious time to undertake such a project since the energies of the aspect were strong.

Hopefully we have all done that project and put away the list of emotions we want to carry us through life. If not, view the project steps by visiting the website at www.luckyastrology.com/archive.htm and clicking on April. There is still a chance to complete the project until May 11 - that's when the Saturn/Pluto aspect finishes. However it is best to do this quickly to take advantage of this super-duper extracting and organizing energy from the universe.

To those who did finish the assignment, congratulations. This is a huge step towards a more joyful future for life. This puts us on our way to feeling more loved by a higher power.

When we feel this love by a higher part of ourselves, whether we call it God, Divine Love, our Subconscious Mind or The Cosmic or whatever, we feel complete and are able to feel loving towards ourselves. Once this happens, we start to see that others are an integral part of who we are, and we naturally feel loving towards them. This loving feeling expands to all of nature and eventually all there is. This is what we call an awakened state of Awareness.

It is important to note that this is a causeless love. Its only motive is pure love, a genuine liking and wanting. It is an acceptance of just the way things are and an agreement of every moment we are in. This is an extremely powerful state of mind to be in. To be aware of the peace, happiness and bliss of this state is to experience Oneness with all there is. Everything is in harmony and just perfect at each moment.

This perfection is a byproduct of sharing, helping and generally doing for others. It comes as we give to others. By this action, we automatically grow this Love inside ourselves. Eventually we can be in a place of joy and love for all that is, that we flow positive energy outwardly towards everything and everyone. This is Nirvana or Heaven on Earth. This is our life's goal.

What is the next step for all this? It is to continually reach for a thought that makes each of us feel a tiny bit better. We start wherever we are and go from there. On our daily paths when we hear a thought of our own or another's we can choose to think or/and express a thought that is a little bit better, a little more positive, a little more upbeat. We start looking for the silver lining in all there is. This works wonders as it attracts better and better things, people and events to us like a magnet. This is called the law of attraction. If we try it, we will like it - and it will like us - for sure!

How does this all fit in with the two aspects that are happening now? Up until the Saturn/Pluto aspect finishes on May 11, it is a great time to attach projects to our 'envelope'. This 'envelope' is the compilation we made of our life's desired feelings last month. Each of these feelings is a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow or, in other words, our pathways or projects that evolve from our joyous emotions.

These projects can be intuited at this time because of the Jupiter/Uranus aspect which has been with us since March (see our March newsletter at www.luckyastrology.com/archive.htm and click on March). This strong intuitive energy is present until June 2.

However, once May 11 comes, then the Saturn/Pluto creating or birthing time of the projects we have set up to reach our life's desired feelings is over. We should make a list of those babies, those projects we have come up with from May 3 to May 11 as this is an ambitious planning phase. It is best to also set the goals and timelines for each project, so we will know when we have become successful in their attainment.

Write the goals for our projects down now. Once again, this is a window for planning to bring more of our desired emotion into our lives. This is such a wonderful time to attach material projects and goals to achieving the feelings in life we desire. This will ensure their durability. Use the 'envelope of feelings' and set projects and their goals from them. This is the best way to make the rainbow actually flow to our envelopes of gold. The rainbow will become a real pathway as we place the stepping stones of our projects along its way.

Here are some other strong energies to take advantage of from May 3rd until May 11 - We can use both the Saturn/Pluto and the Jupiter/Uranus aspects to rethink or re-plan our careers, and our standing or position in life with respect to what we really desire in life. We can use Astrology, the Internet and other modern electronic tools and programs to understand and decide where we want to go and what we actually want to be doing.

On May 11 Saturn & Pluto's planning and extracting energy will be finished, and all energy is indicated to be put into 'expanding intuiting' -- the Jupiter/Uranus aspect which extends to June 2. We do that by noticing and encouraging the lightning quick answer that comes in a small, wee voice when we ask, especially out loud, a question about the future. We can experiment with intuition by asking who is calling us on the phone before we answer a ring, or who mailed us before we check our mail box.

We can start with these small questions and as we learn to pick out our Intuitive voice from our rational mind's thoughts, we will be adding to our experience of what the Intuitive voice sounds like and how to differentiate it from our regular thoughts. This will let us see that a part of us really knows facts and answers that can be quite prophetic and true and we can use this ability on bigger and bigger questions.

This Jupiter/Uranus aspect, in addition to being quite inventive and expansive especially in regard to electronics and humanitarian efforts, can also be quite joyful with outside group sports and unusual and fascinating occurrences in space, UFOs and even Astrology. This aspect becomes exact May 21, so that will be the strongest time for all this fantastic and fascinating and fun-loving energy that is available to us all. It then tapers off and is finished on June 2.

In our opinion, though, the best use for all of this uplifting energy flow from May 4 to June 2 is for new ideas for our "Envelope" of 'Life's Desired Emotions.' We can continue our 10 minute walks, asking ourselves out loud every once in a while, "What is the next step towards my 'envelope of life's desired feelings?'" When we verbalize this aloud, we are transmitting our desire for assistance from a 'higher power'. We are showing that we are receptive to new ways, to new ideas, to new steps on the path towards our 'envelope'.

If we have done the complete process suggested here, we can then ask, "What is the very next step to put energy into for Project #1, Project #2?" etc.

We would love to hear your experiences along these lines, especially those related to the ten minute walk and the emotions you culled from it, so will you please email us?

And now as a quick refresher of what to achieve by next newsletter:

May 3-11: Create projects for the attainment of desired lifestyles and make goals for the development of these projects.

May 11-June 2: Intuit how to proceed on these goals and where to put energy for their success.

JoySee was just reading last night that only 29% of the U.S. population believes in astrology. What we believe in tends to happen. That's lucky because as we align with Lucky Astrology's positive-only astrology, the positive will tend to happen more often to us. Is astrology lucky for you? Just write us with your birth data and we will look at your chart and see how your planet Uranus is doing. It will tell us if Astrology can be joyful for you.

September may be our next newsletter because that is when the next long lasting positive aspect happens. If that is the case, have fun and follow your joy! Hopefully our new knowledge of Intuiting will be exciting for all of us.

Namaste,
