

September 2007 Lucky Astrology Newsletter

Disneyland 2007

Greetings Family and Friends,

We decided to keep these newsletters coming to you in the same simple way we have been doing them in the past, rather than in a Yahoo Group - maybe in the future though.

The October newsletter will come from India after our two-week tour and immediately before we start our 21 Day Oneness Process at the Oneness University, (www.onenessuniversity.org) on Oct. 2, where we will be trained to give the Oneness Blessings. Stay tuned!

In this issue of our newsletter, we will explain about each of the astrological signs (your Jupiter sign, not your sun sign) in regards to

- 1. "Feeling goosebumps"*
- 2. Advantages of Oneness Blessings*
- 3. The first part of the 3 stages of Enlightenment*
- 4. What to practice in our handwriting to be inspired*

The 'signs' we talk about in this newsletter are Jupiter signs which are different than Sun signs. If you have yet to find out what your Lucky Jupiter sign is, just visit our site www.LuckyAstrology.com and input your birth information and the program will furnish your Jupiter sign.

Feeling Goosebumps

We've been chatting at you in recent newsletters about getting chills, goose bumps, or other ways of being 'in-spired', but talk is only talk.

The link below will give you a real experience of it. As you watch it, notice how you experience Spirit talking with you when you view and listen to this short video. Be sure to turn up your speakers!

<<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1k08yxu57NA>>

What did you feel or sense? Did you notice the judges' reactions? And the audience? That beautiful voice coming out of a very common, ordinary person brought people to their feet and "goose pimples" to the judges. It inspired them!

"In-spire" literally means in-breath or drawing in of the life force. We believe that these chills are ways we receive guidance; ways in which Spirit says to us "Right on! Take notice; you're on track! This is what happens when you're in the flow!"

Remember the old "handshake" with modems? The sound of one modem searching for and finding the right harmonic level with the other? And when it does, there's this whoosh sound of connectivity?

That's how it seems to us when we connect to Spirit. These physical signs are mind/feelings or/and environment aligning with Spirit. Our awareness is vibrating at a high enough level that we can feel Spirit as a body sensation. We can think of it as Spirit saying "You're connected!" and telling us to do more of the same because we are perfectly centered on our Spiritual path.

Inspiration in the Signs

When we feel a spiritual sensation, if we have Jupiter in:

Aries: we may get excited about it-when we put more energy into what we were doing at the time.

Taurus: we may get real contented-when we continue producing that which we were doing at the time.

Gemini: we may start talking about it-when we think more of the same thoughts

Cancer: we may feel more nurturing, more caring towards the subject

Leo: we may want to share what is happening

Virgo: we may want to study it more thoroughly

Libra: we may want to enjoy it again with our partner

Scorpio: we may develop a passion or desire to intensify the feeling

Sagittarius: we may want to broadcast these types of feelings; let everyone know what we discovered

Capricorn: we may want to use these feelings with reverence

Aquarius: we may want to experiment more with these things

Pisces: we may want to become one with it and let it absorb us

Have You Had Your Oneness Blessing Yet?

The Oneness Blessing is a wonderful way to receive an energy transfer, a divine gift, an increase in awareness. These blessings have no religion attached to them. They are for anyone and create a deep sense of love and oneness with everyone and everything. The effects are accumulative so if you are really interested in your spiritual path, spiritual ascension and becoming more conscious and aware, we highly recommend getting a Oneness Blessing once a week.

The advantages of Oneness Blessings for each Jupiter sign are:

Aries=More physical energy and excitement

Taurus=Being more secure and stable.

Gemini=Having less thoughts

Cancer=Feeling of self being nurtured by the Cosmic

Leo=Being able to create a heavenly Earth easier

Virgo=Feeling good about our health and the Perfection of the Cosmic

Libra=Experience feeling so peaceful and loving

Scorpio=Get connected to the source and increase our healing abilities

Sagittarius=Experience more joy and abundance

Capricorn=Increase our focus and ease of achievement

Aquarius=Watch our intuition and hunches increase in accuracy and feel more awake.

Pisces=Feel inspired and in tune with the Cosmic's Love

How are the blessings administered? Oneness Blessing's energy transfer is usually done by placing the hands on a person's head. This can also be done over the phone.

To contact Oneness facilitators in your area anywhere in the world, just go to:

Her name is Shazna - shaznaj@earthlink.net, 541-482-2301 home, 541-210-2892 Cell. She is a certified Oneness Blessing facilitator.

Three Stages of Enlightenment

As promised in the August newsletter, the first of 3 stages of enlightenment or awareness is Love.

The first part of this, is feeling loved, ourselves. Once we are feeling very loved and the universe feels like a friendly place, we then can love everyone else, which is the next part. It's like when our cup runs over with love, we then can show others how much we love them. But first we must receive the love.

The Oneness Blessings are a way to receive the gift of Love from the Universe. And as we said before, they are accumulative and also create permanent shifts. We start living from our hearts more and our minds less. Everyone begins to feel like our family.

Inspiration in Handwriting

Since handwriting is expressive movement, by changing how we write, we can change how we express ourselves and how willing we are to receive input both from others and from Spirit.

In my years of doing handwriting analysis, I found that it is easy to spot a very creative person by their handwriting. I am including a couple samples below.

Sample 1 - Architecture Student

A handwritten note on a light-colored background. The text is written in a cursive, slanted script. The note discusses a student's decision to enlist in the Army to attend Officer Candidate School instead of continuing to study architecture in college. The student is 24 years old.

Having gone to college to study architecture, I recently enlisted in the Army to attend Officer Candidate School. Has this change been a good one? Age 24 yrs.

Sample 2: Interior Designer

worth of estate jewel

You might find the usual quirks of personality within the writings, such as defensiveness or fears as you might in anyone else's, for these people aren't saints yet. They're humans like the rest of us but somehow they have found a way to tap into, to be "in-spired" by, Spirit.

Unlike the ordinary Jo or Joe, the creative is open to inspiration and knows how to harmonize body and mind and spirit in a way that produces beautiful expressions of art, music, literature, architecture, dance or speech.

How is this shown in writing? Often creatives have distinctive ways of writing and good rhythm and flow. Take note of the two samples - you'll notice that both, although different, have a nice flow to them. The strokes return consistently to the baseline (the imaginary lines on a page) as well, producing a rhythmic writing.

That's a good start - developing a nice rhythm to our writing and flow - not jerky or overly smooth - just a nice movement forward. It indicates a person who allows ideas to flow freely, who embodies a freedom of expression in all he or she does.

The prime trait of a creative person though is that he/she creates breaks between the letters - either in a sort of print-script or just not connecting letters in the regular cursive writing.

This is the trait of intuition - allowing Spirit to bring inspiration through. In a sense, it is pausing in one's thought patterns to create a gap, wherein inspiration, Spirit can come through - similar to how we are taught to meditate by putting thought aside. If our telephone is always busy, how can God get through?

The creatives allow Spirit through in their daily life and it is reflected in their handwriting - they allow inspiration in and it is shown very clearly in their writing in the breaks. And it is easy for us to practice - we can just make it a routine to never connect more than five letters or instead pick up the pen and break the connection after each vowel. Write rhythmically and fluidly as well. And then let go and let Spirit through!

That pretty much covers it for this month. Visit JoySee's website at www.TheWriteSite.us . Or email her at jsterling@sti.net with suggestions, comments and ideas. She'd love to hear from you as would Davie. His website is www.luckyastrology.com and his email is smilingdavie@yahoo.com.
